The second annual Southwest Suburban conference music festival will be held at Bremen high school Saturday, April 23. Five hundred students from the various conference schools' music departments will meet at Bremen at 8:30 a.m. Saturday morning to begin a day of rehearsals under two nationally known music educators, Richard Brittain of the Vandercook school of music, and the director of the band, and Sten Halverson, of Aurora, will be in charge of the chorus.

Forty members of the Lincoln-Way choral groups will sing in the 350 voice conference chorus, and 20 members of the Lincoln-Way band will play in the conference band of 150 members. Sandburg high school will be represented by 20 band members and 40 members of the choral groups, and Bremen high school will have at the festival 26 members of the band, and 43 from the choral groups.

A concert will be presented by these two select organizations under their distinguished conductors at 8 o'clock Saturday evening. This concert is open to the public and will be held in the Bremen high school gym. Tickets for the evening performance may be purchased from any band or chorus member of Lincoln-Way, Sandburg or Bremen high schools, or may be bought at the door.

On April 6 the Lincoln-Way high school band, under direction of Robert C. Taylor, presented a concert for the grade school students in the Lincoln-Way area. Concerts were given in Mokena at 9 a.m. in Frankfort at 10:30 a.m. and in New Lenox at 1 p.m. A program is planned for Manhattan at a later date when the new gym will be available.

A clown band composed of Ted Hurst, Don Grund, Bill Hammond, Larry Cullison, Jim Waring and Bill McCormick was a hit at each school. Mr. Taylor finished each program by telling the students he hoped that on future programs many of the boys and girls in the audience would be playing in the Lincoln-Way band.

The House Lights Grow Dim

They are smiling here but when the stage lights come on and the curtain goes up tomorrow and Saturday night on "The Curse of an Aching Heart," the cast will be down to business and tears and sighs will make short work of the smiles that now illumine their faces.

Oldsters who once shed tears over the anguish of the heroines of popular melodramas, and boiled with anger at the dastardly acts of the villain, will rejoice at this opportunity to again have their emotions stirred. Evil threatens destruction of all that is good, but fear not—you can go ahead and bet all the tea in China that Virtue—with a capital V—will triumph in the end. And you younger people, come on and get a load of this. "The Curse of an Aching Heart," rated high as a tear-jerker right

A feature of the concert this year will be the appearance of two fine young pianists, Sharon Wolf and Rudolph Guzik.

At the opening of the program the colors will be presented by a detachment of Cub Scouts.

A light supper will be available at the school following the concert, and at intermission the Band Parents will dispose of a number of cakes.

Tickets may be purchased from members of the band or at the door. All proceeds will be used in meeting the expenses attached to the maintenance of the band.

Lincoln-Way High To Be Featured In School Magazine

A story and pictures of Lincoln-Way high school is to be one of the features of an early issue of the Illinois Education association magazine.

Assistant Editor Francine Richard, who has been at the school, talking with faculty and board members as well as students, also arranged a series of photographs. There are a number of things at Lincoln-Way that are entirely different than are to be found in other similar institutions, it was explained, and it was to note and record such differences that Mrs. Richard was sent to do an article on the school.

The treatment given in the development of the 70-acre site of Lincoln-Way is one of the "differences" to be discussed in Mrs. Richard's forthcoming magazine article.

MISS DOLORES COOPER WED TO W. BARENZ

Miss Dolores Ann Cooper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Cooper, of Mokena, was united in marriage at 7 o'clock Saturday evening, April 16, to Mr. Willard Barenz, of New Lenox, son of Mr. Jacob Barenz of Mokena, and Mrs. W. Homering of Long Beach, Cal., at St. John's Evangelical and Reformed church, Mokena. Rev. E. Dale Kleinschmidt, pastor of the Mokena Methodist church, performed the double ring, candle light ceremony.

The bride, who was escorted to the altar by her father, was dressed in an antique silk shantung gown, with chapel train and low cut neck with seed pearl bodice and finger tip veil. Her corsage consisted of white carnations, centered with a natural orchid and white streamers.

The church was decorated with baskets of white and pink gladioli and potted palms. Candelabra glowed at the altar and candles flanked both sides of the main aisle.

Organist was Mrs. Esther Fields Davies of Joliet. Richard Gillette, of Mokena, sang "Until," "O Perfect Love," and "Wedding Prayer."

Miss Marilyn Cooper, sister of the bride, maid of honor, wore a wedgewood blue crystal-line waltz length gown, bouffant skirt and bolero jacket. She carried a colonial bouquet of pink carnations, with a rosebud circle in the center, with blue streamers. Bridesmaid was Miss Helen Rueckert, of Mokena, whose gown and bouquet was identical with the maid of honor's.

Best man was Wesley Sievert of New Lenox, home on furlough from the Air Force base at Las Vegas, Nev., and Edward Wondrasek, of New Lenox. Ushers were William Koerner, a cousin of the groom, and Tom Staley, both of Joliet.

VOTERS PUT OK ON POLICE TAX IN FRANKFORT

Despite very inclement weather, with high winds and driving rain during most of the day, Tuesday's election brought out a gratifying turnout of voters. In Mokena's uncontested election for three places to be filled on the village board 69 votes were cast. Elected as village trustees were Lyman T. Teague with 63 votes, Willard Munch with 63 votes, and Ray Westlund with 65 votes. There were two write-ins with two votes for O'Brien and 2 for Ed Hentsch.

In Frankfort where four candidates contested for three places to be filled, there was a spirited election. Also in Frankfort a police protection tax was voted on.

Elected were Clyde Reil with 263 votes, John Topp with 237 votes and Wayne DePorto with 228 votes. Herbert Polkers polled 87 votes. The newly elected trustees will fill the places of Adam Heuser, Clarence Heiser and Leroy Hansen. There were two write ins, Leroy Hansen with 2 votes and Clarence Heiser with two votes.

The police protection tax issue won by a majority of 222 votes. 209 having been cast in its favor and 77 against. According to Village clerk, Walter Pfaff, approximately $3,600 a year is derived from taxes, which is insufficient to meet other village expenses and pay the salary of a policeman. With the approval by vote of the police protection measure, approximately $2,600 a year additional will be available, which is not sufficient in itself to pay the salary of a police officer and maintain a car, but with some of the normal $3,600 fund allocated for this purpose the desired goal is in sight.

In New Lenox voters turned out in good numbers, attracted by the three-cornered contest for the mayoralty and the fact that 10 candidates were seeking the three places open on the village board. None of those seeking office were incumbents.

Lloyd Berlin, a grocer, who won the mayor's race, has been serving on the village board as trustee. Howard Ayres, who was mayor of New Lenox, did not choose to run. Berlin polled 252 votes as compared to 192 for Eugene W. Hunt and 154 for Leonard G. Heimerdinger.

Winners in the trustees' election were F. Noel Elliott, drug-gist, with 361 votes; Joseph M. Waichert, who operates a milk truck route, 329, and James F. Battle, retired, 226.

Candidates for trustees who failed in election and their votes are: Stanley Gilmore, 204, Herman Torrence, 164; J. Earl Robinson, 133; Peter Rob. 112; James F. Brooks, 107; Eugene (Steve) McGovney, 101 and Thomas J. Carey, 66.

Robert J. McCleary was re-elected village clerk without opposition. He received 505 votes.

BREAK GROUND FOR PARK VIEW BAPTIST CHURCH

The Park View Baptist church celebrated its first step toward building at a ground-breaking ceremony on the church property at La Porte road and Scott st., Mokena, Sunday. Seventy-eight persons were present.

The ground-breaking prepared the way for the construction of the first unit of the church, which is the Bible school unit. Part of the building will be used for gymnasium service until the worship building is constructed. Pastor Arthur Contois officiated at the ceremony and addressed the group on the subject, "Who builds the church?"

The first turn of the shovel was taken by August Russell, New Lenox, senior deacon and vice chairman of the church. He was followed by Theodore Rydell, chairman of the board of trustees, Mokena. Mrs. Connie Runia, president of the Women's Society, Mokena, and Stanley Baudry, superintendent of the Bible school, Mokena.

Also participating in the ceremony were Rev. C. George Ericson, director of publications of the Baptist General Conference of America, and his wife; Rev. Victor Sherling, field missionary of the Baptist Conference of Illinois, and Milton Bloom, chairman of the board of the Baptist Conference of Illinois, all from Chicago.

TAX GROUP BRANDS FIGURES ON SCHOOL NEEDS AS PHONY

Phony figures as to Illinois school building needs that can't be financed by local school districts are being used in Washington, the Taxpayers' Federation is unalterably opposed to federal aid for education, including federal aid for school construction. Illinois taxpayers would benefit far more from reduced federal spending, the Federation says.

Claims in a federal report that over 185 million dollars is needed for school construction in Illinois in school districts that haven't the bonding power to build the schools themselves have been "greatly overestimated," according to a statement to the Taxpayers' Federation by M. M. Craft, assistant director and building consultant in the office of the superintendent of public instruction who was in charge of compiling Illinois school district estimates of their building needs for this "Report on the Status Phase of the School Facilities Survey" published by the U. S. Office of Education.

The Illinois school problems commission estimates that a state school building authority with a revolving fund of $7,500,000 would be adequate to meet the needs of Illinois school districts which haven't enough unused bonding power to build the buildings themselves.

With federal estimates of Illinois needs some 2000 percent off and with Illinois fully cap-

Winning Race Into The Past By A Whisker

Many amusing incidents are being reported in Frankfort, growing out of the fad of young men growing beards, with the possible hope that they will go unrecognized when Centennial Days roll around. Some tall stories are being told about these beards, which are beginning to flow in all directions. One of these stories goes something like this:

The other day an attractive out of town school teacher said to one of the young men of Frankfort who has outdistanced most of his fellows in the race to become a second U. S. Grant, "Young man, your tonsorial appearance seems to be quite out of line with your sartorial appearance."

"Huh?" said the young man. "Will you repeat that, please?"

The teacher repeated it and explained that "sartorial" had reference to dress and "tonsorial" had some reference to barbers and to shaving.

"You look like you just stepped out of a band-box," she said, "but when I glance at your face with all those whiskers it makes me think you have just stepped out of the past."

"I'm not stepping out of the past," said the young fellow. "I am expecting to step into the past. Can it be that you haven't heard of what's going on in this village? This suit of clothes I am wearing is everyday stuff, and it's a pretty good suit at that, but those whiskers are something that come along only once in a hundred years. Come the middle of next August, Frankfort is celebrating its 100th anniversary, centennial, and by the way, this beard is costing me about five times as much as my tie, six times as much as my socks, and twice as much as my shirt."

"What in heaven's name do you mean?" asked the teacher.

"I mean," said the young patriot, "that this stubble has cost me $5 for the privilege of growing it. I had to get a permit from the village of Frankfort to grow it, and that permit cost me $5."

"I think I'd like to go to that centennial," said the teacher.

"You will," said the young man. "It's a date."

Injured Bringing News of Brother's Injury To Mother

Earl and Robert, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Klepper, of Alpine, were hospitalized as a result of accidents occurring at different times Saturday, April 9. Earl was sent to St. Francis hospital, Blue Island, as result of burns received while helping take care of a bonfire in the yard.

Later, while en route to his mother's place of employment to give her the news of Earl's accident, Robert received many lacerations resulting from a fall on the Southwest highway when a car collided with the motorcycle on which he was riding.

Robert remained in the hospital two days. Earl must remain in the hospital for an indefinite time for plastic surgery.

Administration of the Salk vaccine as a safeguard against polio will be started in the Mokena public school and in St. Mary's parochial school Wednesday, April 27. The vaccine will be administered to first and second grade students only free of charge.

In the Mokena grade school a total of 70 pupils are enrolled in the two classes, 55 of whom have written permission of their parents to receive the vaccine. In St. Mary's school there are 33 first and second grade pupils, all of whom have been given the necessary permission by their parents.

The Salk vaccine will be administered in other grade schools in the area at a later date, to be announced as soon as decisions are reached. All Salk vaccine injections are under the jurisdiction of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Many school children in Chicago have already received the polio "shots," which are not painful, and which to date have proved to be from 80 to 90 per cent effective against the dread malady which has scourged the world from time immemorial.

Originally it was the intention to give these inoculations in the doctors' offices, but the National Foundation decided that it would be best to give them in mass clinics, so the plan now is to administer the Salk vaccine in schools and hospitals.

Gov. Stratton is seeking an emergency state appropriation of one million dollars to provide immunization with Salk polio vaccine, without charge, for approximately 250,000 Illinois children who are ineligible for free shots under the program of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. Bills authorizing the emergency appropriation are being considered in both houses of the general assembly.

The NFIP program provides for free immunization of children in first and second grades only. There are believed to be approximately 1,800,000 children in Illinois under 15 who are not in the first and second grade brackets, but the amount of Salk vaccine available during the next two or three months will not make it possible for Illinois to buy more than enough to vaccinate about 250,000.

SET DATES FOR MOKENA HOMECOMING

New dates have been fixed for the Mokena Homecoming.

This annual event is to be held Aug. 19, 20, 21.

These dates were announced following a meeting this week of the Lions and Civic clubs at the VFW hall at which Arthur Shoop, president of the Civic club, presided.

Stanley Williams was named chairman of the committee in charge of the Homecoming, with Norval Robinson as co-chairman.

At a previous meeting the Homecoming dates had been fixed for July 14, 15, 16. The Mokena Homecoming dates have been in August for many years but were changed this year at the request of those in charge of the Frankfort Centennial celebration. The entertainment booked for the centennial could fill its engagement time only at the time at what would have been the dates for the Mokena Homecoming, so Mokena yielded its time to Frankfort.

Since fixing the homecoming dates for July, the Lions and Civic clubs, which have charge of the event, have received numerous suggestions to change the dates. It was explained that the July dates would conflict with those of other events previously planned in Mokena so at the meeting this week it was decided to change the time to Aug. 19, 20, 21.

This will be a week after the Frankfort centennial has concluded.

New Home Open For Inspection In Park View Acres Sunday

"Open house" will be held at Park View Acres, La Porte and Wolf road, Mokena, this Sunday, April 24, from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m. Open for inspection will be a tri-level, 3-bedroom frame home, with attached garage, gas heat, built in gas range and gas oven, tile bath, and other modern conveniences. This home has been sold to Thomas Eberhart. It was built by the National Construction Co., Al Duncan, contractor, and the material was furnished by the Mokena branch of the New Lenox Lumber Co. Choice homesites are now being offered for sale in Park View Acres.

For many centuries in Western Europe, a counting system based on 120 was used, and in medieval England, the word "hundred" really meant 120.

SAFETY FIRST CAN HEAD OFF DAMAGE SUITS

Costly freak accidents can be avoided by farmers only through the use of more than ordinary caution, according to the April IAA Record, monthly publication of the Illinois Agricultural association.

The IAA is the statewide Farm Bureau organization with more than 202,000 members.

"Even if you're cautious with such standard accident pitfalls as corn pickers and ladders, you may wind up in the middle of a costly personal injury suit because of a freak accident that might have been prevented," an article in the magazine states.

One of the cases cited by the Record concerns an Illinois farmer who was repairing a gate with the help of his hired man. "With the hired man standing a few feet behind him, the farmer struck a glancing blow at a nail. "The nail flew up and hit the employee in the eye," according to the article. "The injured man rightly felt he should be compensated, because he lost the sight of the eye. The hired man's case was settled for a little more than $1,500."

In many cases you can prove you were not negligent in an accident, but proving that can cost almost as much as paying damages, the Record states.

"For instance, a farm employee driving a tractor was involved in an accident on the highway. The operator of the car sustained fatal injuries. The resulting trial proved the tractor driver to be free of negligence, but court costs and attorney fees to prove his innocence totaled $3,046."

A farmer takes several liability risks, the publication points out. He is liable for his own negligent acts, for negligence in the upkeep of his property and for damaging acts of his animals. As head of a family, he may be held liable for negligent acts of members of his family.

As an employer, he may be held accountable for negligence which harms his employees and for injury to others by his employees.

"Since most farm accidents in Illinois involve common law liability, you may avoid either awards for damages or the cost of proving lack of negligence by purchasing adequate liability insurance," the Record says.

"In addition to having insurance coverage, the best way you can sidestep the cost of accidents is to follow the rules of safety, courtesy and good judgement," the article concludes.

U of I Invites Public to Visit School At Pier

The University of Illinois will open the doors of its Navy Pier division to the public Tuesday and Wednesday, April 26 and 27.

High school students, parents, and friends of the University are invited to inspect the facilities between 4:30 and 9:30 p.m., both days.

Special displays and exhibits have been planned by every department, including laboratory demonstrations.

The University choir will present a concert at 7 p.m. and the band will perform at 7:30 on both evenings. Orchestras, the modern dance group, will give a recital at 8:30. About 30 other student organizations will have displays.

Set Clock One Hour Ahead For Daylight Saving Time Sunday

Next Sunday morning, at 2 o'clock, we will revert to daylight saving time once again. Clocks will be set ahead one hour. The change to daylight saving time is effective through out Chicagoland, which, of course, includes this area. Railroads with suburban service will adjust their suburban time tables to the change, but "through trains" will remain on Central Standard Time. This is the main source of confusion.

The coming of daylight savings time will revive the old-time argument as to its need and its value. On the one side are the proponents of "sun-time" who would have the clocks stay as they are, and on the other are those who will rejoice in that extra hour of daylight during the summer months giving them more time for garden work, motoring and what have you.

Most clocks in the area will be advanced one hour before the householder retires Saturday night, but it can be expected that a few "night owls" will await the official hour of 2:00 a.m. before making the change. But don't forget to push that minute hand one hour forward or you will find yourself meeting your friends coming home on your way to church.

County Scholarship Examinations To Be Held April 30

Under Illinois state law, scholarships are awarded annually at the end of each school year to each recognized four year public, private and parochial high school.

The Will County scholarship examination will be held in Joliet on April 30. The scholarship examination for Cook County will be given at the Cook County court house, Chicago, April 30, from 9 to 11 a.m. and from 1:30 to 4:30 p.m.

High schools with an enrollment of fewer than 500 students are required to give three scholarships; schools with an enrollment of 500 to 1000 students inclusive, four scholarships; and schools with an enrollment of more than 1000 students five scholarships must be given.

The following scholarships will be awarded on the results of the examination, if properly qualified candidates appear and have satisfactory scores on the tests: County scholarships; agricultural scholarships; home economics scholarship; scholarship for a child of a veteran of World War I; scholarship for a child of a veteran of World War II; child of a veteran who served between June 25, 1950, and the termination of the National Emergency proclaimed Dec. 16, 1950.

More teachers are urgently needed. More than 3000 teachers will be needed to care for the increased enrollments of more than 65,000 students who will enter the public schools next year. This number does not include the private schools. There will be a number of persons who are now teaching who will leave teaching through retirement, marriage, to enter other fields of work, or for other reasons.

Recent reports from the registrars of all of the colleges and universities of the state of Illinois indicate that there will be 149 fewer persons completing the four year elementary course this year than a year ago. There will be 171 more persons completing the high school program in these same schools.

BOARD TO BUY BUS-INSTALL ENTRY LIGHTS

Attorney Albert H. Krusemark of Frankfort, who has been president of the Lincoln-Way high school board since the district was organized in 1951, has again been elected to that office.

He was named at the regular meeting of the board last week when it organized following the election of April 9th.

Canvass of the returns showed only one change in the vote total. Lester Case, of Manhattan, who was re-elected received 307 votes in the official canvass, a gain over the unofficial count. In the unofficial count Mr. Case was given 306 votes.

The other figures were unchanged. Raymond Reiter, of New Lenox, who was re-elected, received 319 votes, and Lorin Schleeter, of Manhattan, who was elected to fill the unexpired term of George Bovee who moved out of the district, polled 320 votes. The canvass also showed one vote each for three other persons, S. Perry, C. Swanberg and Holenban.

Mr. Case was elected vice president of the board in place of Bovee, and J. Earl Robinson, of New Lenox, was re-elected secretary, a post he has held since the board was formed.

Contracts have been given out to the teachers covering the next school year - 1955-56 and some additional instructors will be hired before the fall term begins to meet the anticipated increase in enrollment.

Approximately 100 additional students will be enrolled in the fall, it was estimated by Supt. A. Hunter Chapman, which will bring the enrollment up to 500 or better.

With this increase the district will also need an additional bus, and the board is asking for bids on such a vehicle. The bids are to be opened at the next regular meeting, May 11. The district now has six buses; two of them are of the larger type which accommodate 61 passengers, and the other four each carry 52 students. The new bus to be purchased will be the smaller type.

Beginning next fall two of the smaller buses will be used to serve Manhattan. Manhattan is now being served by one of the larger vehicles but will outgrow this. The large bus will then be put on the Mokena-Frankfort run. These two towns are now being served by one of the smaller buses that makes two trips - one from each community.

The board also approved a request of the Parent-Teachers organization that lights be installed at the main entrance to the school site. The parent-teachers have raised approximately $200 for the project and Supt. Chapman has received an estimate of $175 for the work of extending the necessary cable from the building to the site of the proposed improvement - a distance of about 220 feet. The Parent-Teachers will pay for this work. The board will take care of the additional expense.

On instructions of the board Supt. Chapman conferred today with a representative of Childs and Smith, the board's architects, and asked for suggestions and a plan. The school land boundary begins 90 feet north of the highway, the intervening strip being road right-of-way owned by the state. So any pillars or poles used to carry the lights would have to be set north of state property.

The architect's representative suggested as an alternate that mushroom type lights, which hug the ground, be installed to mark not only the entrance but the main drive in front of the school. Details will be worked out and presented to the board for final approval.

The board approved a request by the three Haley brothers of Manhattan township, William, Francis and Robert. The Haley property was added to the Lincoln-Way district last fall in the final dissolution of non-high territory. When word of this was given to the Haleys it was received as news, William explained to the board, because they thought they had been a part of Lincoln-Way, and with good reason—they had been paying taxes to the district. The error was traced to the courthouse at Joliet but not before he Haleys had paid $187.11 in taxes that they didn't owe to Lincoln-Way. The board voted last night to make a refund. But from now on,

of course, the Haleys will pay taxes to the district.

And speaking of paying - the board approved payment of bills totaling $4,979 and semi-annual interest due May 1 in the sum of $15,137.50. This interest is on the million 200-thousand dollar bond issue voted by the people to build the high school. The issue is to be paid off over a 19-year period. A $50,000 payment will be due Nov. 1, along with some more interest.

SCOUTS START PARK PROJECT

A project to improve and beautify Mokena's new village park has been started by troop 40 of the Boy Scouts.

The program was gotten underway last Saturday when the boys and their leaders began work in the wooded section of the park.

Some trees were transplanted along the eastern limits of the ball field and clearing and planting along the new trail was started. The trees placed near the ballfield were some that had blocked the trail, and the transplanting was done to conserve instead of destroy them.

The boys were on the job early and worked until 5:30 in the afternoon.

They conserved more than trees, it was pointed out, by utilizing the occasion for a cook-out so they could pass some of their Scout tests.

Numerous pictures were taken, stills and movies of the progress on the project. The Scouts are compiling a "before and after" record for their park program.

The expense of the average vacation voyage from New York to the European-Mediterranean area during 1950 was about $1200, according to the Chicago Motor Club. Round trip fares average about $580, while other expenditures were about $655.

It takes about one part of nitrogen to 10 parts of carbon to make organic matter in the soil.

Hold Campus Mother Day At Univ. of I. This Week End

This week end, April 29-30 Campus Mothers Day will be celebrated at the University of Illinois, where the idea of such a college observance originated in 1921. The date is always a week before national Mother's Day so that students may join with other children at home in honoring their mothers.

This year is the 35th anniversary of the University of Illinois Mothers' association. Mrs. Berle Needham, Mokena, represents Will county as county chairman.

The association will hold its annual meeting at 10:30 a.m. Saturday in Champaign. The county chairmen will be hostesses at a coffee hour preceding this meeting. They will also have a meeting and dinner the preceding day.

Hold Last Rites For Mary Kolar

Mrs. Jacob F. Kolar (nee Mary Wies) died Sunday, April 17, in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Jacob Frechaut, Plainfield township, where she had been staying for the past few weeks because of poor health. Although she had not been well for some time, death came unexpectedly. She was at the dinner table with the family Sunday when stricken and died shortly afterwards.

Funeral services were from the Gerhardt funeral home at Le-mont to St. Alphonsus church, Lemont, Wednesday with the pastor Rev. Richard Hills, officiating. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Besides her husband, she leaves two daughters, Mrs. Margaret Frechaut and Mrs. Anna Stafford, both of Plainfield township; two sons, Walter of Homer township and Edward of Beecher; 15 grandchildren and one great-grandchild. Also one sister, Mrs. Eugene Daum of Homer and Throughout the years she has been a cheerful, efficient mother and housewife and a loyal member of St. Alphonsus church.

LINCOLN-WAY STUDENTS RATE HIGH IN TESTS

The Lincoln-Way junior and senior classes rank in the upper 50 percent of the juniors and seniors throughout Illinois according to their average scores made on the Illinois statewide high school tests taken last fall. The University of Illinois provides the tests, scores them, and reports results in "percentile scores" for each individual student and for each class in the school. A percentile score of 50 for a junior girl means that she made a score that was better than 50 percent of the juniors in Illinois who took the same test. Percentile scores are figured separately for juniors and seniors.

The scores below are the average percentile scores for the Lincoln-Way junior and seniors on each of the eight items covered on the tests.

1. Abstract reasoning, an index of the student's ability to work with language materials. Juniors average score, 59.1; Seniors average score, 55.4.
2. Verbal reasoning, an index of the student's ability to work with language materials. Juniors average, 54.9; Seniors average, 50.4.
3. Total reasoning score, an index of the student's general academic abilities. Juniors average, 57.4; Seniors average, 53.3.
4. Natural science reading comprehension, indicates the student's ability to read and interpret the type of reading material which one finds in the physical and biological sciences. Juniors average, 59.6; Seniors average, 56.3.
5. Social science reading comprehension, indicates the student's ability to read and interpret material which one finds in the social sciences. Juniors average 52.1; Seniors average, 52.4.
6. Achievement score, an index of the student's ability to express his thoughts in writing in a correct and clear manner. Juniors average, 62.4; Seniors average, 52.9.
7. Conventional error score, an index of the student's ability to avoid errors in the use of the conventions of correct and formal English, such as errors in spelling, punctuation and agreement. Juniors average, 61.9; Seniors average, 47.8.
8. Functional error score, an index of the student's ability to avoid errors impairing the meaning of his communication, such as errors in sentence structure, word order and diction. Juniors average, 56.1; Seniors average, 55.1.

Since these tests were given in November, the scores above primarily reflect the education received by students in their respective elementary schools and the high schools which they attended before enrolling at Lincoln-Way.

Readers should keep in mind that the above scores are class averages and that scores for individuals vary greatly from the above. Parents of students are invited to make arrangements for an interpretation of the scores made by their own son or daughter. Interested parents should call 2051 for an appointment.

cooked eggs. When I had T. B. my doctor insisted that I eat only uncooked raw, fertile eggs containing Life. He also recommended the uncooked coral of lobsters and the live roe of fish.

All beautiful birds live only on live seeds, live worms, and live spring water. Their food must be alive. The only birds which will eat dead meat are the horrible crows and buzzards; dangerous insects and bacteria will also eat dead things. The same principle applies to animals of the forest. Certain moldy cheeses and yeasts contain Life. Live seeds in 15-cent envelopes can be purchased at any hardware store.

How To Keep Beautiful

Those who have seen any fish (from mackerel to sharks) pulled alive out of the ocean have been impressed by their natural beauty and proportions. When analyzing the diet of these fish, we learn that the smallest fish live on minute animal and plant life known as plankton and algae; that the larger fish live on the smaller live fish; and so on up to the whale. But, all insist their food be alive.

I am not vouching for any theory of life, but it does seem as if the above evidence should be considered when selecting our diet. Once, no doctor had recommended B12 pills or brewer's yeast; but today they recommend them. Perhaps we will live to see doctors recommend the addition on non-fattening live seeds or phosphatides to our diets.

WOULD CHANGE LAW TO PERMIT COUNTY POUND

Each year rabid dogs destroy thousands of dollars' worth of livestock and endanger many human lives. Prior to 1953 the only state law on rabies was the one that gave the state department of agriculture authority to impose restrictions in an area where rabies had become a problem. This law is still on the books. Under it the department may require that dogs be kept confined or muzzled and on a leash and, further, that all dogs be vaccinated.

In 1953 a new rabies law was passed that requires all dogs to be vaccinated each year unless they are confined or muzzled or on a leash when out. Enforcement is placed in a county rabies inspector appointed by the county board. He and his deputies are responsible for vaccinating dogs, issuing tags and impounding stray dogs without tags. Part of the vaccination fee is turned over to the county to pay for tags, records and the cost of catching, keeping and destroying stray dogs.

There is some dissatisfaction with the 1953 law because there is no provision for a county pound, and unless there is good enforcement those who have their dogs vaccinated pay the way for those who violate the law.

The lack of pound space might be solved by a bill now in the general assembly that would permit counties to establish pounds. At the present time only townships and cities can have dog pounds.

The lack of enforcement is much more difficult to solve unless it stems from not having a pound. In parts of the state it is believed that no rabies problem exists and that the vaccination fee is just another type of tax. In other areas the rabies fund is too small to employ necessary personnel, and there is some question whether county funds can legally be used.

However, in much of the state county boards and dog owners have accepted the rabies program. Rabies inspectors in these counties operate on the philosophy that only by strict enforcement will all dog owners be treated fairly.

If it can be assumed that animal vaccination for rabies is justifiable (there appears to be ample evidence of rabies cases in Illinois), then it behooves the farmer to discharge his obligation to society and to his family by having his dog or dogs vaccinated. With many domestic animals and the greater chance for wild animals on the farm than in urban areas, the possible spread of rabies in rural areas presents a real danger.

Trade Schools Now Available in Navy

Phil M. Rowe, BT1, USN, recruiter in charge of the Harvey Navy Recruiting Station reports that the new pay increase which became effective April and applies to all ratings after two years of service has created considerable interest. The pay raise coupled with the navy's high school graduate program has resulted in a very high number of applicants for high schools following high school graduation. Rowe urges all interested young men to contact him while reservations for trade schools are still available. The navy recruiting station in the Harvey post office is open from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Thirty-nine per cent of the deaths and 35 per cent of the injuries due to motor vehicle accidents last year occurred on Saturdays and Sundays.

Twenty-four per cent of all drivers involved in fatal auto accidents in the U.S. last year were under 25 years old.

EXPERT WARNS OF ELM DISEASE

Dutch elm disease is on the march in Illinois. There's no known cure for it, but one can help to stop it from spreading by destroying all dead and dying elm trees on one's property, says J. C. Carter, plant disease specialist with the natural history survey.

From one known case in 1950, the disease has spread to 55 Illinois counties. It killed thousands of elms last year.

The reason for destroying dead and dying elms is to get rid of the breeding place of the bark beetle. The beetle usually breeds in weakened elms. The Dutch elm disease fungus grows in paths beetles make under the bark.

When the new-born beetles come out of the infested trees, they fly to healthy elms, taking the disease—causing fungus with them. They first start emerging in early May, so plan to have your clean-up before May 1.

Cut dead and dying trees and burn them on the spot. Don't let wood lie around for a few weeks or the beetles will keep breathing and the young will fly to other trees. If one can't burn the tree right where it is cut down, it should be treated with one percent DDT in No. 2 fuel oil before hauling it away for burning.

Complete sanitation also demands that one strip and burn bark from the stumps of cut trees. Clean up any woodpiles around the place that have dead elm wood in them.

More information on how to recognize symptoms of Dutch elm disease and how to prepare samples for testing may be obtained by writing to the Natural History Survey, Urbana, Illinois. The only way to tell Dutch elm disease from other elm diseases is to have a test made.

HEARING LOSS ATTRIBUTED TO MANY CAUSES

Many people have trouble with their ears and hearing, but for some reason or other do nothing about it. Since hearing loss usually develops very gradually without pain, with no running of the ears in most instances, a person finds it hard to believe that his ears are going bad and is inclined to blame the change in hearing on something or someone else, the educational committee of the Illinois state medical society observes in "Health Talk."

Hearing loss stems from many causes. Hearing loss also appears in many forms, any one of which may result from infections, disease or injury, individually or collectively. Many types of hearing loss can be remedied by medication. Others require surgical attention.

Some persons may not benefit by any medical or surgical procedure, but instead may be helped with other procedures which might include the use of a hearing aid. The proper decision as to which kind of treatment is to be utilized depends solely on an accurate and positive diagnosis.

Many people think they can be aided by vitamins, operations on the nose or tonsils or ear, but this is not usually the case. People should not be misled by wild-eyed advertising or high pressure salesmanship.

It must be remembered that a hearing aid does not restore normal hearing. Rather it helps the person to hear in the same way that an artificial leg helps a person to walk, but at the same times does not restore normal walking. A person should not "shop" for a hearing aid. The process of getting a hearing aid should not be separated from the process of diagnosis and treatment. It should be considered part of good treatment of certain kinds of hearing loss. Hearing loss should not be hidden. It should be discovered and treated. For every person some improvement is possible, if only to allay his fears and if only to learn how to make the best use of the hearing he has left.

Civilian Defense
Tags Offered By National Food Co.

National Food stores have announced cooperation with the Federal Defense administration and the Pet Milk company in a national campaign to encourage the wearing of civilian defense identification tags by all citizens.

Under the program, National Food stores and Pet Milk company, as a public service, will make standard civilian defense identification tags, similar to the familiar army "dog tags", available to citizens throughout this area for a slight handling charge and at no profit to either.

The handling charge will include printing on the tags of necessary identification information such as the wearer's name and the name and address of the person to be notified in an emergency. Official order forms for the tags are now on display in all National Food stores thruout the middle west. The milk company will handle requests for mailing. The program will be publicized in newspapers and TV network shows.

Val Peterson, administrator of the Federal Civil Defense administration, declared, "The wearing of identification tags constitutes an important part of the national civil defense effort. The tags will be an invaluable aid in the identification of casualties and the relocation of people in an emergency. This campaign has the full cooperation and support of the Civil Defense Administration."

Order blanks for the official civil defense identification tags, with imprinting and mailing instructions, are now available at local National Food stores.

leged Bueschle struck two park-jail and his case set for Monday, when he was taken before Judge Williams, who continued his case until this Saturday, April 23.

Bueschle was released on bond of $1,000.

N.W. Places Third In Parliamentary Contest of FFA

The Lincoln-Way chapter of the Future Farmers of America participated in the annual pa-liamentary procedure contest recently. This contest is held for the purpose of leadership training for the members of the various FFA chapters. Twelve FFA chapters participated in the event.

Watseka placed first, Milford second, and Lincoln-Way third.
Lincoln-Way survived the semifinals and thus were eligible to participate in the evening final.

FFA members on the parliamentary team, representing Lincoln-Way were: William Hammond, chairman and Don Hunt, secretary. The rest of the team consisted of James Hobbs, Allen Rasmussen and Russell Hamilton.

Individual honors went to Hammond, who tied for first place in the contest as chairman. Hunt was first place secondary in the afternoon semifinals. Floor group from Lincoln-Way placed second in the evening finals.

Pneumonia Top Killer When It Comes To Calves

Pneumonia continues to be one of the major killers of young calves, according to the American Veterinary Medical association.

Many cases of pneumonia can be prevented, however, the AVMA reports. Avoiding infected quarters is of prime importance. Proper feeding, along with well bedded, draft free quarters are also essential for prevention.

Losses from this disease may be kept down by prompt treatment by a veterinarian. Early and proper administration of the newer drugs and medicines will save many calves, but the association points out that the calves may be left in a weakened condition.

In 1954, 35,500 Americans were killed in traffic accidents.

Most of the new science fiber fabrics dry very rapidly. They absorb little water, and what water is held in the fabric drips out quickly.

Godly Nations

Lesson for April 24, 1955

WE MAY as well admit that no such thing as a "godly nation" has ever been seen—not if you take the word "godly" at its full meaning. A godly nation, 100 per cent, would be one where every citizen kept God's commands, where every act of Congress (or of Parliament, of decree of king) would be such as God would fully approve. For the matter of that, a hundred-per cent godly individual is also unheard of.

And yet we can speak of godly men and ungodly ones. So we can speak of more or less godly nations, nations whose trend and direction is toward God or away from him.

Dr. Foreman

Is God on Our Side?

We always like to think, especially when we are at war, cold or hot, with other nations, that God is on our side. We like to think that we are God's people and the other side, the enemy, is not. The truth of the business is that no nation is either completely right or completely wrong, no nation fully carries out God's will and no nations wholly defy it. No nation in the world today is composed entirely of Christians, no nation in the world today is without Christians in it. But having said all this, we can still say truly that God is on the side of some people and nations more than he is on others. In the Old Testament we have a good example of a nation that made this mistake of supposing God would be for them whatever they did, and they were dreadfully dismayed when they discovered that they could lose wars and generally "eat bitterness." Many Jews thought God had let them down when such things happened; but the prophets knew better. Azariah, a prophet in King Asa's time, put the truth in a nutshell. "The Lord is with you while you are with him," he said.

Leadership in the Church

King Asa's times, and the times of President Eisenhower and Queen Elizabeth, are not so very far apart after all. What was needed for a godly nation in the days of Asa? The need that the prophet mentions first is "teaching priests." There were plenty of priests who went through the liturgies and made sacrifices, but what the nation needed was teaching priests, religious leaders who could teach the law of God that is to say, priests who could show the people what religion meant in daily living, in dealings between man and man. So long as religion stays inside the church, so long as religion concerns itself only with the Other World, so long as religion tries to confine itself to what is exclusively spiritual, it will not be Biblical, and it will be powerless to build a godly nation. An officer in a young people's church group once told the writer: "Our bunch really means business. This year we raised the money to extend the chancel two feet."—and that was all they did! One suspects that there was something missing in the parson's sermons, if those young people got the idea that the business of religion mainly has to do with how long or short the chancel is. God's law is not a law for Sunday mornings only.
But until and unless there are teaching priests who take the lead in showing us how we can apply God's law—and above all the law of Love—to our life as a nation, we shall be godly only on Sunday mornings, if ever.
The most church-going city in the south was for years also the city with the highest murder rate; the place lacked teaching priests.

Leadership in the Nation

Preachers and churches will have an uphill time of it, at the best, even when they do see and work for the doing of God's will in everyday social and political and business life. There is too much organized and unorganized selfishness abroad to give the God of Love much chance. So in our time, as in King Asa's long ago, there is need for leaders outside the pulpit. In those days it was the king himself who took the lead. We have no kings in America but we do have leaders, all the way from village mayors up to Congressmen, senators, supreme court justices and the President.

tional Council of the Churches of Christ

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

Man's God-given dominion over the bondage of fear will be brought out at Christian Science services Sunday, April 24.

The Lesson-Sermon entitled "Probation after Death" will include the following from the Bible (Hebrews 2:9-15): "But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels from the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honour; that he by the grace of God should taste death for every man. . . . And deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage."

Among the correlative passages to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy is the following (426:16): "When it is learned that disease cannot destroy life, and that mortals are not saved from sin or sickness by death, this understanding will quicken into newness of life. It will master either a desire to die or a dread of the grave, and thus destroy the great fear that besets mortal existence."

When laundering the new science fabrics, it's a good policy to separate light from dark garments avoid long soakings and be wary of strong chlorine bleaches.

Coach Lashmet is in pretty good

OPEN FIGHT ON

'ROAD BUSTERS'

Opposition to several pieces of proposed legislation described by the Chicago Motor club as "highway busters" has been voiced by that organization in several meetings about the state.
One bill that has roused the fire of the motor club is House Bill 479 which would permit trucks to carry a five per cent overload on each axle for a maximum fine of $1. In practical application this means that the 18,000 pound axle load permitted under present law would be increased to 18,900 pounds.

Charles M. Hayes, president of the motor club, says "overweigh-ing of trucks is detrimental to highway pavements. Road tests prove conclusively," he continued, "that heavy vehicles cause considerable damage to pavements. The present law entitles trucks a tolerance of 350 pounds per axle to compensate for shifting of loads or added weight due to ice or snow. There is no justification for further increasing this tolerance."

Another bill under fire is

House Bill No. 502 which would enable transport outfits to put trailers on the road five feet longer than the law now permits.
The maximum length under present law is 45 feet. Truckers want to extend the limit to 50 feet.

Opponents say that "boxcars" crowding streets and highways are long enough. They are in favor of making them shorter rather than longer, pointing out that the present length makes them difficult to handle in traffic, especially in turning corners.

If trailers are made longer they will tie up traffic in built up areas more than they do now, it is claimed.

Mr. Hayes adds that safety experts of the motor club say that an additional five feet to trailers would require 29 feet more for a passenger car traveling 60 m.p.h. to pass a truck traveling 50 m.p.h.

"This means that motorists would be forced to expose themselves to more hazards than are necessary," says Hayes. "During a passing maneuver the length of time that a motorist must spend in an opposing lane on a 2-lane highway is critically important. Why jeopardize his life for the sake of carrying more cargo."

Illinois Again

Offers Bravery,

Service Awards

The department of public safety, by direction of Gov. William G. Stratton, is again attempting to select young persons in Illinois, aged 18 or under, who are deserving of the Young American medals award.

These medals, the Young American Medal for Bravery, and the Young American Medal for Service, are presented by President Eisenhower upon the recommendations of a committee appointed by Atty. Gen. Herbert Brownell and headed by F.B.I.
Chief J. Edgar Hoover.

The bravery medal may be awarded to a person of 18 or younger who, during 1954, has exhibited exceptional courage, extraordinary decision, presence of mind and unusual swiftness of action, in an effort to save life.

The medal for service may be awarded for achievement worthy of public report. It must have been acknowledged by the chief executive officer or officers of a state, county, municipality or other political subdivision, or by a civic, educational or religious institution, and must have been prominently mentioned in the public press, on radio or television in the community wherein the service was accomplished.

A candidate must be a citizen of this country to be eligible for the service award, but need not be for the bravery award. Anyone knowing of some young Illinoisan worthy of consideration for either of these awards should forward details to Joseph D.
Bibb, Director, Department of Public Safety, Room 103 Armory Building, Springfield, Ill. Deadline is June 30, 1955.

Drivers should investigate weather and road conditions before starting trips, advises the Chicago Motor Club. Such trips should be postponed when practicable if poor visibility and slippery roads would make the attempt hazardous.

In 1954, nearly two million casualties were recorded for motor vehicle accidents.

LEAF GALL

Man's unrelenting war against insect enemies moved a step forward today.

A leading tree care company reported it had developed a practical control for leaf gall. This insect-caused tree malady has been with us for years but was never troublesome enough to require control. Now it is reaching serious proportions in certain sections of the country. Leaf gall causes malformation of foliage and declining tree health.

Poor soil management rather than the crop itself is what makes corn a soil-depleting crop, according to a University of Illinois agronomist.

ALPINE

Mrs. E. Mrosek
Orland 2841-R

Contributors of news to this column should call the writer's new number, Orland 2841-R. The Orland Boy's 4H club was well represented at the tractor maintenance class held at the Bettenhausen Implement Co. in Tinley Park, Wednesday evening. Officers of the Orland boys and the Alpine Girls 4H club attended classes for officers training held at the Farm Bureau, Tinley Park, Tuesday evening.

Members of the Orland Boy's 4H club who attended the class in farm electricity held at the Farm Bureau, Thursday evening, are expressing much interest in the project.

At a meeting of the school board, Sunday afternoon, it was decided that Raymond Knieriem should continue as president for the next year, and Harwood Stellwagen clerk.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Reeves attended a Bon Voyage party in Berwyn Tuesday evening, given for Mrs. Paul Vaitkus. Mrs. Vaitkus who had come to this country as a war bride, left for England, Friday by plane with her daughter, Terry, where they will spend three months visiting relatives and friends.

A few spikes of asparagus are being found here and there. Mary Jane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harwood Stellwagen, was made happy on her third birthday Sunday, by visits from relatives who dropped in at various times throughout the day with best wishes.

A very interesting program was presented by Maue's teachers, Mrs. Lemke and Mrs. Brown, at the regular monthly meeting of the PTA.

Mrs. Lemke talked on the correlation of history and art and some of her students told the story of Africa in dress and song. Mrs. Brown talked on the trend of art in class rooms and illustrated with some of the work done by students in her room. Of particular interest was the wall sized mural showing means of transportation in the 18th, 19th and 20th centuries.

School News

The boys and girls saw two interesting films this week, "Liberia, Republic of Africa" and "Man on the Land" which was an animated cartoon story of agriculture from the time man first scratched the earth with a stick to his present role in civilized communities.

The 7th and 8th grade students brought to a successful conclusion work on the mural showing means of transportation in the 18th, 19th and 20th centuries. They are to be commended for their excellent planning, cooperation, and creative work on this wall sized mural.

The magazine drive closed April 12, netting a profit for the school of $47.90. Curtis awards have been ordered in proportion to the numbers of credits earned for the boys and girls who sold magazines. Carla Mrosek was high salesperson.
